

Thad's Thoughts

They say that you know you have a good friend when you can be apart for long periods of time, but the minute you are back together it is like you were together last week. That was most definitely the case for us as we recently spent the weekend with good friends whom we hadn't seen for awhile. We immediately picked up where we left off and the laughter never ceased.

I heard a pastor say that our prayer life should be the same way. Rather than beginning our prayers with a formal introduction each time, this pastor said that our prayers should always begin, "Oh, and God..." The implication is that we are walking so closely with our Lord and Savior that the conversation always picks up right where it left off. Because Jesus is closer than a friend, our prayer life can be an ongoing conversation.

I imagine that it is very pleasing to God for us to remain so close that we are in constant conversation. God never moves. We are the ones who often wander off. We are the ones who leave our Creator to try and blaze our own trail. Therefore, for us to be able to have a continual conversation it means that we are staying close and not wandering. There doesn't have to be that awkward re-entry period because we have never really been apart.

Romans 12:12 says, "Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer." Whether you are rejoicing or you are in a time of tribulation, keep the conversation going with Jesus. He wants to know all about it. He is a constant companion who will laugh with you or who will sit and cry with you. Just talk to him. He is always eager to listen!

The Affirmation of Faith..... "The Apostles' Creed"Number 881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Anthem....."It Is Well".....Mary McDonald
(The Chancel Choir, Dr. Marc F. Boensel, conductor)

"When peace like a river attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll, whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say, 'It is well.' Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come, let this blessed assurance control, that Christ has regarded my helpless estate, and has shed his own blood for my soul. It is well with my soul. And Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as the scroll, the trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend. 'Even so,' it is well with my soul."

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

SEE differently and LIVE differently.

Dear St. Luke Family,

Words cannot begin to express how grateful and overwhelmed my family and I were by the wonderful celebration you hosted for my retirement. I can honestly say that during much of it, I found myself wondering who you were talking about! Your kind words, generous gifts, and expressions of love touched me deeply. One of the greatest joys of my life has been serving in ministry alongside you, the St. Luke family. You have blessed me in countless ways, and you will forever hold a special place in my heart and in my prayers. Through your faithfulness, love, and good work, I have grown in my own walk with Christ. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your lives and for the many memories we have shared over the years.

With much love, gratitude, and appreciation,

Mitch Watts
